Comments

“ My Grandmother Altagracia Lopez was a woman of great faith she prayed for everything. She trusted that the lord was in control of every situation and no matter what we faced In This life we should pray about it trusting the lord on the good and the bad, The happy times and the sad times. She was the rock of my family. She loved to sing old hymns, and play the tamborín. She was a great cook, she loved to feed everyone Weather you were hungry or not you were going to get a plate once you walked into the house. She had a great mind she remembered everything from her youth to her adult life she had amazing stories that I will forever treasure. She was a loving mother, grandmother, great-grandmother and a loving wife. She will be missed but never forgot always in my heart. I love you Mita.
