“ My deepest sympathy to the family.
I'm so sad to hear this news.
I'll never forget the days working at St.Joseph's Child Care with you and then years to follow all of the fun times at Irma's house and just having fun with the kids. You were the sweetest, most giving person and I feel lucky to have crossed paths and share fun times with you. May you Rest In Peace with the other angels.

“ This was the last thing I expected. Gone way too soon. I will always remember your kind words and laughter.

You always had a smile on no matter what was going on in your life.
Heaven has a special place just for you.

Rest in peace, Terry.

“ Wow a piece of me has died as well... From the first day I met you you gave your heart. I was photographing a wedding and you were videotaping it as a gift. We sat together for dinner and I joked about needing help at my photo studio and for the next 10 years we made many great memories for lots of people. I not only a friend, I lost a little bit of my heart. I will miss your phone calls but will cherish the memories. See you in Heaven, God has a new Angel...
